By Odin's Beard- Our Village will be holding a costume contest during the festivities on the Saturday afternoon of our Faire. We expect the most fearsome Warriors, Knights, Maids & Ladies to compete for fine prizes and the acclaim of the whole populace. And- there shall be a special contest for best attired youngsters! Be creative & colorful as you wish, or go for the most authentic look possible.

We shall also have a Viking encampment by "Austlend Vikings" (an early medieval history group of reenactors) is being built for this special event- they are eager to meet our Fairegoers and demonstrate their crafts and share their culture and fascinating history- their mysterious travels, traditions and beliefs.

Many new features have been added to this year's Faire- games for all ages, numerous merchants & wares (many will be Viking-themed), and new entertainers & musicians to our stages. We have also kept on a number of Faire Favorites- Tuatha Dea as our Headliners both Friday night & Saturday, TimTv & The Secret Cirkus, Belly Dancers and Swordsmen, Fierce Fighters, the Enchanted Forest & Bouncy Castle, and our Grand Procession at noon on Saturday.

And FOOD! Our vendors are providing dishes from many cultures, for many tastes- & TURKEY LEGS! Washed down with ales, wines, MEAD & such, provided by COMMUNITY TAP, a new addition to our growing list of Vendors! NOW 60+, AND we now have an ATM on site for your convenience!

Parking for this family-friendly event is FREE, and DISCOUNT TICKETS are available NOW online, both through our website & also AttendStar. Regular price at the door at $12/Adult, $10/Child, or SAVE and get a 2-day Pass! PLUS- Volunteers receive free admission; check our website for details.

See YOU at the Faire!
